

FOUNDATION STREFA STARTU

COOKIE POLICY

What are the cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are automatically created and saved on the user's device by the web browser upon visiting a website. They enable the website to function correctly, offer a higher level of security, and operate more efficiently. These files allow the administrator to obtain information necessary to ensure the proper functioning of the site.

Personal data administrator

The administrator of personal data is the STREFA STARTU FOUNDATION with its registered office at ul. Wschodnia 1A, 99-300 Kutno, Poland. The Foundation is registered in the National Court Register under the number KRS 0001152283, with NIP 7752676034 and REGON 540754318.

Personal data may be processed based on:

- Art. 6(1)(a) GDPR – i.e., the user's consent, in the case of installing cookies that are not required for the operation of the site,
- Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR – i.e., the legitimate interest of the administrator, in the case of cookies necessary to ensure the functionality of the service.

Types of cookies used

- Necessary – do not require user consent; they are installed to ensure the basic operation of the website.
- Functional (task-related) – may require consent if not essential; help tailor the website to user preferences.
- Analytical – require user consent; used to analyze the use of the service and improve its performance.
- Marketing and advertising – require consent; allow for the presentation of tailored ads based on user behavior.
- Social media – require consent; enable interaction with content on social media and displaying personalized ads.

Our Foundation uses different types of cookies that serve specific functions:

- Necessary (basic) – are crucial for the proper functioning of the website. They handle tasks such as remembering the user session, processing forms, and informing about the use of cookies.
- Functional (task-related) – allow the site to remember user choices, e.g., the email address used during login.
- Analytical – enable the analysis of website traffic, including the number of visits and traffic sources. They help improve the quality and performance of the service. We use tools provided by Google, among others.
- Marketing – serve to personalize advertising content based on user activity on and off the site. Information from these cookies may be used by our advertising partners to create a user interest profile.
- Social media cookies – installed by third-party companies, they help tailor advertising content on social media to the individual preferences of the user.

Cookie retention period

- Session cookies – operate only during the current website visit and disappear after the browser is closed.
- Persistent cookies – remain on the device until manually deleted by the user or for a period set in the browser settings.

What data is collected?

Cookies may collect technical and statistical data, such as:

- IP address,
- device and browser type,
- time of visit and interactions on the site,
- approximate location.

This data is usually anonymized or pseudonymized and does not allow direct identification of a person unless the user voluntarily provides such data.

How to manage cookie consent?

Some cookies are activated automatically upon entering the website. If the user wants to block them, this can be done through the settings of their web browser. Below are some browsers that offer such functionality:

- Firefox
- Chrome
- Microsoft Edge
- Safari

Please note that disabling cookies may affect some website features, although its basic operation will still be available. The user can give consent for the installation of selected categories of cookies during their first visit to the site – via a displayed banner or a consent management panel. Consent can be withdrawn or modified at any time via:

- browser settings (links to instructions below), or
- clicking the “Manage cookie consent” link located in the website footer.

Lack of consent may impact certain functionalities of the site, but does not prevent its general operation.

Contact

If you have questions regarding the processing of personal data, please contact us using the addresses provided in the “Personal data administrator” section.

The user also has the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office if they believe that their data is being processed in violation of GDPR regulations – details available at: <https://uodo.gov.pl>.