

PRIVACY POLICY OF THE STREFA STARTU FOUNDATION

1. Data Controller

The controller of your personal data is the STREFA STARTU Foundation with its registered office in Kutno (registered address: ul. Wschodnia 1A, 99-300 Kutno).

2. For what purpose do we process your personal data?

1. The processing of your data is necessary for the provision of services by the Foundation, i.e. to conclude and perform a contract (based on Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR). Data will be stored until the completion of the contract.
2. Data is also used for promotional and marketing purposes of services offered by the Strefa Startu Foundation with its registered office in Kutno, which constitutes our legitimate legal interest (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR). Processing continues until an objection is raised.
3. Additionally, we analyze the data for statistical purposes, which helps improve the quality of our services – this is also based on the controller's legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR). Data is processed until an objection is raised.
4. Processing may also result from legal obligations, e.g. in the scope of storing documents required by law (Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR), including but not limited to:
 - a) Article 74(2) of the Accounting Act,
 - b) the provisions of the Anti-Money Laundering Act,
 - c) the Tax Ordinance.
5. If necessary, we may process data for legal protection purposes – e.g. for pursuing claims or defending against them, which is our legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR). Data is stored until potential claims expire.
6. If you have given consent to the processing of data for a specific purpose, it will be used within the scope of that consent until it is withdrawn (Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR).

3. What data is collected and processed?

To conclude a contract, we require certain data to be provided in the form. Without this data, contract execution or order fulfillment will not be possible. We may also request additional data, which is voluntary, but its absence may limit, for example, the possibility of phone contact. During the course of cooperation, we may come into possession of additional data resulting from the provision of services.

4. Who may have access to your data?

1. Data may be disclosed to public authorities – only within the limits of the applicable law, regardless of ongoing proceedings.
2. Data may be processed by entities cooperating with the Foundation under appropriate agreements – including partners, IT companies, banks, archivists, or payment service providers.
3. Data may also be transferred to external controllers, such as law firms, courier companies, or debt buyers – e.g. in case of payment arrears.
4. We do not share your data outside the European Economic Area (EEA), unless it is necessary and compliant with the law. In such cases, you will be informed by email or phone.

5. If data is to be transferred to a country outside the EEA that does not provide an adequate level of protection, we will request your consent and inform you about the potential risks arising from such transfer (pursuant to Article 40(1)(a) of the GDPR).

5. Will the data be profiled?

Your data will not be analyzed in an automated manner nor used to create a profile regarding your preferences or behavior. We do not use profiling for marketing purposes.

6. What rights do you have?

1. You have the right to access your data (Article 15 of the GDPR).
2. You may request rectification or correction of your data (Article 16 of the GDPR).
3. You may request deletion of your data if there are no grounds for further processing ("right to be forgotten", Article 17 of the GDPR).
4. You may request restriction of processing – e.g. when data is incorrect or its processing is unlawful (Article 18 of the GDPR).
5. You have the right to data portability – in a machine-readable electronic format (e.g. .csv), if the data was provided on the basis of consent or a contract (Article 20 of the GDPR).
6. You may withdraw your consent to data processing at any time – this does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out prior to withdrawal (Article 7(3) of the GDPR). Withdrawal of consent can be submitted by writing to: rodo@strefastartu.pl
7. You have the right to object to the processing of data based on legitimate interest (Article 21 of the GDPR). In such a case, we will stop processing the data unless we demonstrate overriding legal grounds.
8. In the event of a violation of GDPR regulations, you may file a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office.

7. Contact

If you have any questions or wish to exercise your rights, please contact us via email:
rodo@strefastartu.pl